

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR THE 2008 NUTMEG STATE GAMES

What does it take to host an event like the Nutmeg State Games? It takes, of course, the VOLUNTEER!
The volunteer is the cornerstone to the success of the Nutmeg State Games.

The Nutmeg State Games would not be able to operate efficiently without the services of hundreds of volunteers that have loyally served for the past seventeen years. Every year, the Nutmeg State Games needs the assistance of volunteers to help run our event.

Volunteers range from game officials, site directors, game administrators, scorekeepers, timekeepers, ball boys and ball girls, office assistants, registration guides and award assistants. Volunteers can pick the area / sport they would like to be involved with. No previous training is required. Volunteers who devote a mere three hours of their time will receive a Nutmeg State Games t-shirt. In addition, you'll receive the satisfaction of knowing you were an integral part of making the Nutmeg State Games a success!
